MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

There is no change to note in the condition of monetary affairs. The banks were nover in better condition, and for legitimate business purposes all demands are readily met. In Baltimore the papers report more than an abundant very easy. Prime commercial paper goes at from 42 to 5 per cent, and call loans on approved collaterals are made at 41 to 6 per cent. In New York the money market continues very easy. The market for Government bonds is strong and s fraction higher. The arrivals of good Cattle this week were very slow, most of the Cattle being ordinary, in onsequence of which the market was dull, most of the butchers having gone to Georgetown last week and bought a two week's supply. The demand for that grade of Cattle was not very great, although a lot of prime Cattle would sell readily at our outside figures. Hogs were in good supply, and sold quite readily at quotations. Theep are not in much demand, and sell very slow. Good Cows and Calves in demand.

NEW YORK CATTLE MARKET, March 15 --Beeves-Receipts 3059 head. The quality was has been by the Conference unanimously apnot generally good, nor satisfactory to the trade. Lightish Steers, scarcely more than half ma-tured, predominated, and the few lots of heavy ist Cattle were made up of coarse exy-like steers. Not far from 700 fair to prime Steers were taken for the English market at from 10a ille per lb, while about 2000 went to city and suburban slaughterers at from 9 to 112c per lb, including a couple of carloads of Texans at 91c per lb. The shipments of Beef to England and cotland are draining the West of fat, matured Steers, and it is more than probable that before the second week in June next there will be an advance in quotations here equal to $1 per 100 pounds. Calves-Receipts 241 head. Not much change in prices, but an easier feeling and a downward tendency, especially for light yeals. Transactions were at 6a9c per lb, with a few picked veals selling at 91c. Sheep and Lambs-Receipts 4682 head. The demand was not so sharp as on Monday or yesterday, and the market was a trifle weaker. A few spring Lambs were sold at 16a17c per 1b; some choice yearlings at 7½a7½c per 1b; premium wethers at 8a8½c, and poor to prime Sheep in

A CRUEL JOKE. - A very serious joke was played in Washington upon a colored man named Isaac Bragg, last evening, by two clerks in John H. Semmes' grocery store, corner of Ninth street and Louisiana avenue, the result of which is very unpleasant to all who participated in it. It appears that Bragg has been kept employed for nearly two hours and a half. loitering about the store for years, and that the clerks frequently played practical jokes upon him. Yesterday evening while in the store one of the clerks named Alfred Thomas poured some coal oil on his coat. Another clerk, Harry Brawner touched a match to it. He immediately blazed up and ran into the street. The clerks smothered up the flames with their coats, not, however, until Bragg was seriously burned. He went to his home and a physician was sent for, who had him sent to the hospital. Both of the clerks were afterwards arrested and gave bail in the sum of $3,000 each for their appearance this morning, Mr. Semmes becoming their secarity.

MINING MATTERS .- The following items of interest, connected with the mining troubles, are condensed from the Cumberland News of Wednesday: --The miners of the George's Creek Coal and Iron Company's mines held a meeting Monday evening, to consider the wages question, but reached no definite conclusion.

The miners of the Maryland Company also held a meeting Monday afternoon, but adjourned without action until yesterday afternoon at two o'clock. At that time about one hundred miners were present, at the same place, but nothing was done. When other meetings will be held is not known.

It is rumored that some of the miners have said that if the companies will put hoppers in they will load at fifty cents, and that a number are waiting for a start and they will follow.

Conference Notes .- The Baltimore Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South, adjourned last night, after a harmonious session of nine days. The body, included amongst its members, many of the most distinguished men in the Methodist Church.

The members all expressed themselves as highly delighted with their stay in Alexandria. Rev. Dr. Samuel Regester has been assigned as Presiding Elder of this District, and Rev. Dr. Nelson Head is placed in charge of the FATAL ACCIDENT .- Henry Perry, captain SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE. of the sloop River Queen, was fatally wounded, at Aquia Creek, yesterday, by the accidental discharge of a gun. Capt. Perry was sitting near the cabin door, on his sloop, and seeing a swan swimming near by, told his boy to hand him a guo which was lying in a cabio. The boy drew the gun out of its place, and in doing so, caught the hammer in something, and the weapon was discharged, the load entering Perry's leg just below the groin, ranging upwards passed into his bowels. He lingered in great agony until nine o'clock last night, when he died. The remains of the unfortunate man were brought up to this city this evening by the tug Smith Pettit. He was a Maryland man and unmarried.

ton Star of yesterday says: "This morning the the charges of bribery, &c., alleged against store of Mr. Fielder Magruder, in this District, near Benning's Station, on the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad, was destroyed by fire and the bodies of two mon-Mr. Ebenezer Large and his son, John Large, the latter a clerk for Mr. Magruder-both of whom slept in the store, were discovered in the ruios, burned almost beyond recognition. The first persons at the scene of the fire discovered the body of one of the men on the rafters, with the skull crush ed in, and there is but little doubt that both of the men were murdered and the store robbed and then burned." An inquest was held, yesterday, but, without rendering any verdict, adjourned over until Monday next.

A NEW MINISTER. - Bishop Kavanaugh, in his recent appointments at the Southern Baltimore Conference, has filled the Alexandria in light supply and held with comparative station by the selection of Rev. W. K. Boyle, steadings. We note the sale of 4000 bags to a choice which is most popular with the members of that church here. Mr. Boyle is an postmaster at Lyuchburg, Va. His democracy excellent preacher, and a genial and courteous gentleman. He is in the prime of life, a handsome man and has a wife and children. He entered the Baltimore Conference in 1860, and was, for many years, at the request of the Chatsworth Independent Methodist congregation of Baltimore, placed in charge of that church. He has for the last two years served Lexington circuit in that city, from whence he is transferred to this city, where he will find a general welcome.

> OFFICE SEEKERS. - The Washington correscondent of the Baltimore San says:

"Alexandria furnishes about twenty five anplicants for the federal offices in that city. Some of these applicants have been on hand for several days, trying, but so far unsuccessfully, office for themselves or anybody else! FIRES .- At an early hour last night two 'n rthern district of Illinois: Henry Fink, eastchimneys caught fire at Piper's Cove, near the corner of Pitt and Oronoco streets. The flames were extinguished, however, without creating any general alarm.

About half past eleven o'clock last night an alarm of fire was given, caused by the burning of a large frame ice house on Washington street, near the canal, owned by Mr. Ewell C. Atwell. The whole fire department was speedily on the ground, but owing to the progress the flames had made when first di covered, and the long distance from the engine houses, very little could be done, except preventing the fire from spreading to the adjoining frame houses. The fire burned for a long time, and the Hydraulion and Hook and Ladder companies were Owing to the absence of another plug, and the water having been drawn out of the canal, the | Claims Commissioners. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, although some persons believe it to have been caused by spontaneous combustion from the damp straw used in packing the ice.

The plantog mill of Mersrs. Smith, Uhler & Co., near the Seventh street wharf, in Washington, was partially burned this morning. No particulars accertained.

St. Patrick's Day. - To-morrow will be St Patrick's Day, the patronal feast of Ireland. In all of the large cities, it is celebrated by the children of the Emerald Isle and their descendants with processions and banquets. It had been intended to have a bacquet in this city, but in view of the hard times and stringency in money matters, the project was given over. The Alexandria Catholic Beneficial Society will, however, celebrate the day, by attending in a church. body, at Mass, in St. Mary's Church, to-morrow moraing.

THE OLD COURT HOUSE .- Mr. Edmund Burke, Commonwealth's Attorney for the county, returned last night, from Richmond, where he made an argument before a committee of the Legislature, on Wednesday, against the proposed sale of the old Court House. The matter was laid over by the committee until Tuesday next, when Charles E. Stuart, esq., Corporation Attorney, will be heard in support of the proposed sale.
